This notice explains what personal data (information) we hold about you, how we collect it, and how we use and may share information about you during your employment and after it ends. We are required to notify you of this information under data protection legislation. Please ensure that you read this notice (sometimes referred to as a 'privacy notice') and any other similar notice we may provide to you from time to time when we collect or process personal information about you.

Who collects the information

Future Industrial Services Ltd ('the Company') is a 'data controller' and gathers and uses certain information about you.

Data protection principles

We will comply with the data protection principles when gathering and using personal information, as set out in our Data Protection Policy.

About the information we collect and hold remote access systems, email and instant messaging systems, intranet and Internet facilities, telephones, voicemail, mobile phone records, IT backup systems, relevant websites and applications.

Why we collect the information and how we use it

We will typically collect and use this information for the following purposes (other purposes that may also apply are explained in our Data Protection Policy):

- for the performance of a contract with you, or to take steps to enter into a contract;
- for compliance with a legal obligation (e.g. our obligations to you as your employer under employment protection and health & safety legislation, and under statutory codes of practice, such as those issued by ACAS); and
- for the purposes of our legitimate interests or those of a third party (such as a benefits providers), but only if these are not overridden by your interests, rights or freedoms.

Further information on the monitoring we undertake in the workplace and how we do this is available in our Information Security Policy, available from the HR department.

We seek to ensure that our information collection and processing is always proportionate. We will notify you of any material changes to information we collect or to the purposes for which we collect and process it.

How we may share the information

We may also need to share some of the above categories of personal information with other parties, such as external customers, contractors and our professional advisers and with potential purchasers of some or all of our business or on a re-structuring. Usually, information will be anonymised but this may not always be possible. The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations. We may also be required to share some personal information with our regulators as required to comply with the law.

Where information may be held

Information may be held at our offices, third party agencies, service providers, representatives and agents as described above.

How long we keep your information

We keep your information during and after your employment for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal information is processed. Further details on this are available in our Records Retention Policy, which is incorporated into our Document Control Policy.

Your rights to correct and access your information and to ask for it to be erased

Please contact HR Manager, Gary Elliot, who can be contacted at gary.elliott@futureindustrial.com or on 07917 634237 if (in accordance with applicable law) you would like to correct or request access to information that we hold relating to you or if you have any questions about this notice. You also have the right to ask our HR Manager for some but not all of the information we hold and process to be erased (the 'right to be forgotten') in certain circumstances. Our HR Manager will provide you with further information about the right to be forgotten, if you ask for it.

Keeping your personal information secure

We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine business need to know it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

How to complain

We hope that our HR Manager can resolve any query or concern you raise about our use of your information. If not, contact the Information Commissioner at ico.org.uk/concerns/ or telephone: 0303 123 1113 for further information about your rights and how to make a formal complaint.
