FIS is a leading provider of waste management and specialist industrial services, supporting both public and private sector clients with innovative solutions to complex industrial challenges.

FIS is committed to meeting our quality, health & safety, environmental, legal and other compliance obligations. We will endeavour to prevent all accidents, but where this is not possible, aim to reduce the consequences of any incidents.

Meaningful targets and objectives will be set and regularly reviewed to ensure the continual improvement of all aspects of the business. FIS is also committed to ensuring that we are a responsible business, meeting the highest standards of ethics and professionalism in all areas.
